THE ILIAD

St. James School, Montgomery, Alabama

1973-1974

Volume IV

There is a time for all things—

For all seasons.

A time for autumn,

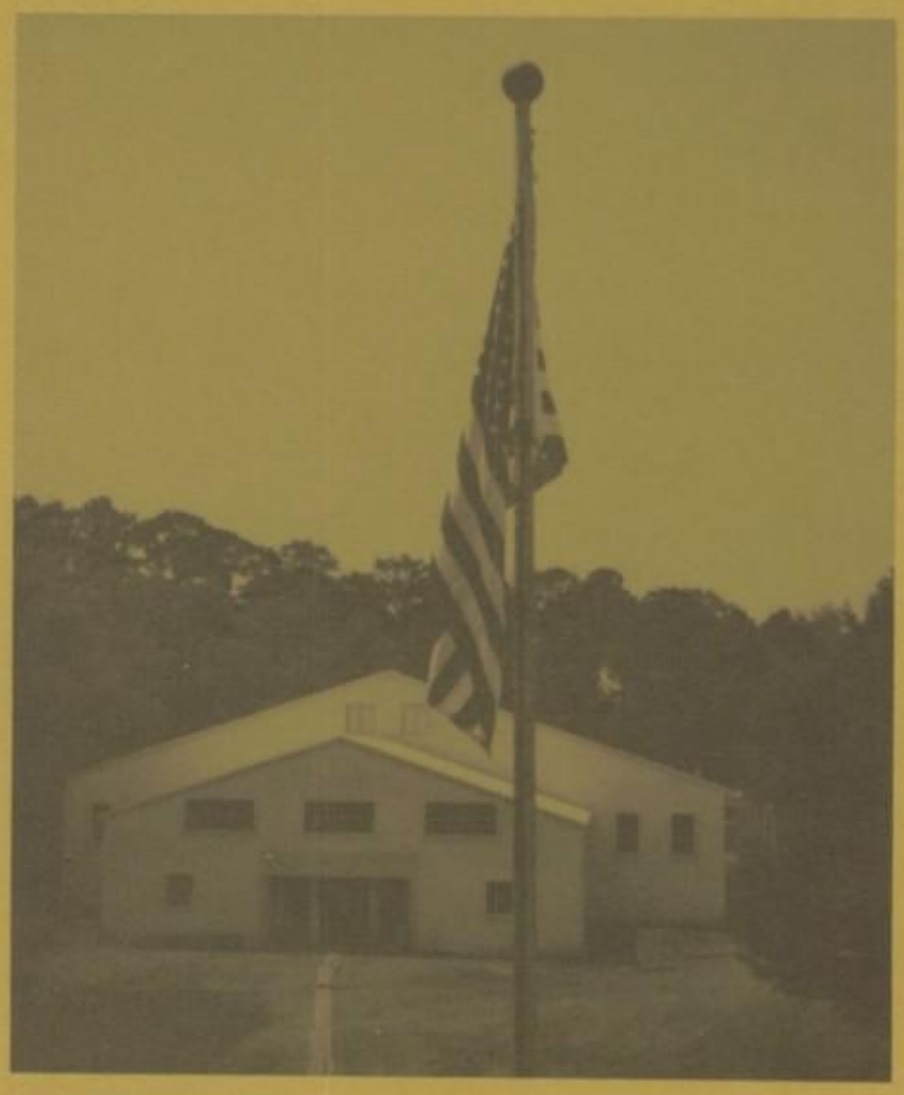
A time for spring.

A time for morning,

A time for evening.

A time for dreaming,

A time for reality.



A time for action,

A time for peace.

A time for youth,

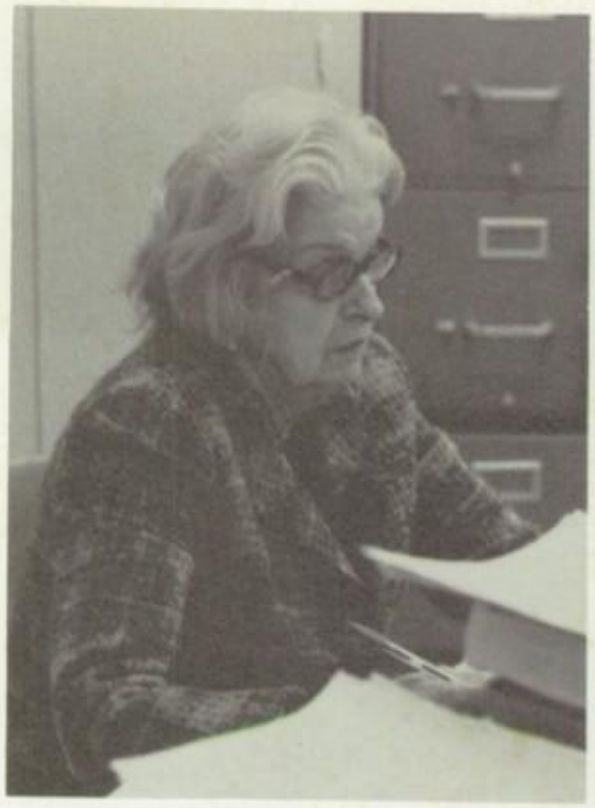
A time for age.

A time for laughter,

A time for tears.

A time to prepare for the journey's end—

—I may not pass this way again.



ACADEMICS

Dedication

Founding, organizing, and supporting St. James School, Dr. Frazer left us with a heritage for which we must be responsible. Because of his untiring service in the promotion of scholarship, the development of mature citizenship, and the continuance of Christian ideals, we wish to dedicate to the memory of Dr. George Stanley Frazer, the 1974 Iliad.

"Nothing of him that doth fade,

But doth suffer a sea change

Into something rich and strange."

Administration, Faculty, and Staff

Mrs. Mary I. Gilbert, Principal

Message to the Students

With every page we turn of this fourth issue of the Iliad, each of us has reason to feel proud and grateful that we have had this opportunity to become a part of the continuing heritage of this fine school.

During the 1973-74 school term we have experienced both happiness and sadness. Those who knew Dr. George Stanley Frazer as founder and friend of St. James School cannot escape the shadow of regret that he could not be among us to share the pride and joy of our first graduating class on May twenty-ninth.

We are secure, however, in the knowledge that with each succeeding year students, parents, faculty, and friends will continue their united efforts to bring to fulfillment his greatest dream—that St. James School realize to the fullest its wonderful potential.

David Gremse, the team's leading rebounder, pulled in over 300 rebounds including 31 in the game against Briarwood. David also led the team in Field Goal percentage connecting on nearly half of his attempted shots.

Spencer Reeder, Team Captain, made a strong contribution to the Trojan cause by averaging around 10 points and 10 rebounds a game.

Bud Winn, another sure performer, was the third highest scorer on the team with his soft shooting touch.

John Yow sparked the team with his ball-hawking defensive play.

Junior Class Honors Seniors

Senior Chapel and the Senior Tea were the last main events before graduation. The Seniors read their Last Will and Testament and entertained the student body with skits and songs for the last chapel program.

And as we leave, we look ahead—

and hope.

And we share

the hopes

and the dreams of all men.

But we also look back—

some with sadness—

others with rejoicing.

How we laughed

and sang

and celebrated our youth,

and how we looked into the future—

and prayed.

But now we leave all this behind.

And we seek life

and wisdom

and an answer.

An answer for this hungry world of men with hollow eyes.

But as we leave, may we never forget the wisdom of the children,

the beauty of the earth,

the freedom of the eagle,

and the eternal peace of God.
